Exhibit 17-2

Edward Tender

1996

December 1995 - January 1996
Edward Tender is charged with 19 felonies and 3 misdemeanors and awaits trial in Richmond County Jail. The charges include breaking and entering, larceny, and 16 counts of obtaining property by false pretenses.

March 26, 1996

Tender gives statement to Rockingham PD that McRae told Tender that McRae killed Rankin because he was white

February 29, 1996

Derrick McRae is charged in Jeremy Rankin's murder and taken to Richmond County Jail.

March 28, 1996

Tender is taken to court, and 20 of his charges are reduced to misdemeanors, dismissed completely, or otherwise favorably resolved

1997

1998

May 14, 1998
McRae is convicted of FDM in Rankin's death.

April 28, 1998
Tender testifies for the state at McRae's first trial, which results in a hung jury (8 jurors for acquittal).

May 12, 1998
Tender testifies for the state at McRae's second trial, and significantly alters the details of McRae's purported jailhouse confession to make his testimony more inculpatory.

May 28, 1998

Remaining charges resolved: Tender pleads guilty to lesser misdemeanor on felony B&E charge, and other dispositions are "Process Other." Prosecutor is SB.
